

ROXANNA YASHOUAFAR, MSW, ASW #30609

Education	University of Southern California Los Angeles Masters of Social Work, Children and Families, Los Angeles CA	May, 2011
	California State University Northridge Bachelor of Arts, Child and Adolescents Development, Northridge CA	May, 2009

Summary of Qualifications

- Completed two day initial TF-CBT training. Certified in MAP.
- Dedicated, proactive graduate with comprehensive experience in Customer Service and Community Development.
- Outstanding communication and interpersonal skills in leading large teams while working with the public.
- Analytical and motivated problem solver with the capabilities to improve processes by implementing solutions while meeting goals and objectives.
- Experience in working in diverse environments with adolescents, adults, and families to provide support and guidance.

St. Anne's

Wraparound Therapist

October, 2011- Current

Los Angeles, CA 90026

EMHS Therapist, Family Preservation, UFA and IHOC

- Responsible for providing comprehensive clinical and social work treatment services to a caseload of 14. Complete initial Child/Adolescent psychosocial assessments. Participate in an interdisciplinary team to provide a healthy, therapeutic, and safe environment for clients. Develop a individualized service plan, and CCCP goals.
- Child and Family Specialist: Provide case individual rehabilitation, behavior modification, and case management to client caseload of 12. Manage community and family crises involving children and parents. Evaluate parent/child/family progress and participate in interdisciplinary team and individual meetings. Interfaces with Department of Children and Family Services, Department of Mental Health, court systems, schools, health care providers and other community liaisons. Document client services in accordance with Department of Children and Family Services and Department of Mental Health Standards.
- Alternative Response Services (ARS) provide case management services to families in need of support but not in imminent risk of danger. Conduct home visits four times a month, seek to maintain family stability and well-being, reduce risk factors for families, increase community support networks and linkages for families and children, and increase a family's ability to address its own needs.
- Up-Front Assessor (UFA): Conduct in-home Bio-psychosocial screenings utilizing the Behavioral Assessment Tool; prepare a written assessment preliminary summary reports and final BSAP assessment report for each client evaluated.

Anderson & Anderson

Therapist, Certified Anger Management Facilitator

August 2011- March 2012

Los Angeles, CA 90025

- Certified Anger Management Facilitator, complete pre-test and post-test for clients, complete Biopsychosocial examination for clients. Provide individual short term and long term psychotherapy, and anger management for adolescents and adults. Update and maintain Anderson & Anderson website, blog, and advertisement.

Olympus Adult Day Health Center

Social Worker

May 2011- August 2011

Los Angeles, CA 90066

- Assess each participant and develop an individualized plan of care in conjunction with a multi-disciplinary team. Complete assessments, reassessments, quarterly reports, and revise plan of care. Provide crisis intervention, short and long term psychodynamic psychotherapy with adults in the ADHC. Facilitate support groups for adults addressing the issues of: coping skills, memory training, social stimulation, and stress management. Actively participate and learn from weekly in-service trainings, and staff meetings. Utilize the CADcare system. Provide discharge plan for discharged patients.

Family Service of Santa Monica,
Vista Del Mar Child and Family Services

*August 2010- May 2011
Santa Monica, CA 90404*

USC School of Social Work Intern 20 hours/week

- Agency Setting: Provide crisis intervention, short and long term psychodynamic psychotherapy with individuals, and families. Provide play and art therapy for children ages 5-12. Maintain clinical charts for each client. Complete DMH and Medi-cal paperwork. Actively participate in and learn from individual and group supervision, weekly in-service trainings, and staff meetings. Conduct intake calls. Work with a socioeconomically and culturally diverse population presenting a variety of therapeutic concerns, ADHD, substance abuse, and physical and sexual abuse.
- Elementary School Setting: Conduct thorough bio-psycho-social assessments, develop treatment plans and provide psychotherapy for students and their families. Co-facilitate therapeutic and support groups for children addressing issues of divorce, conflict resolution, and friendship. Provide consultation for teachers.

Junior Blind of America

*January 2010- May 2010
Los Angeles, CA 90043*

USC School of Social Work Intern 16 hours/week

- Worked as a case manager for adolescents in the group home. Facilitated therapeutic and support group for visually impaired and multi-disabled children addressing issues of self-care, conflict resolution, and social skills. Provided crisis intervention and psychotherapy for individuals. Participated in multidisciplinary meetings, and kept minutes. Participated in SST, and IEP meetings. Prepared Quarterly and Annual Needs and Service Plans and Individual Service Plans. Attended Team Decision Making meetings at DCFS. Performed a needs assessment, and developed a program for higher functioning residents. Maintained clinical charts for each client, including Regional Center and DCFS paperwork.

North Terrace Elementary- Camp Pendleton

*August 2009- December 2009
Oceanside CA 92054*

USC School of Social Work Intern 16 hours/week

- Provided psychotherapy and crisis counseling with individuals. Worked collaboratively and provided consultation for parents and teachers. Created and facilitated therapeutic and support groups for children addressing issues of deployment, reunification, social skills, and gender specific topics. Facilitated a Deployment Group for children addressing deployment and reunification.

Northpoint School, Child and Family Guidance Center

*August 2008-May 2009
Northridge, CA*

CSUN Trainee 5 hours/week

- Co-facilitated therapeutic and support groups with a Licensed Clinical Social Worker addressing social skills. Co-facilitate Recreation Therapy groups with an Occupational Therapist addressing various life skills such as, cooking, and etiquette. Implemented therapeutic Recreation Therapy plans for children with behavior and emotional problems. Completed weekly assessments on children's progress. Read student medical charts and Individualized Education Plans to better understand the students from a Biopsychosocial view. Provided one-on-one aid in the classroom for a child diagnosed with ADHD

Milbank Real Estate

*January 2010 - May, 2011
Los Angeles, CA 90017*

Human Resources Assistant

- Assisted the HR department in the recruitment and hiring process of new employees; including contacting eligible candidates for a phone intake process and conducted the initial interview process. Maintained and managed client files. Assisted the HR department in resolving employee conflict.